5. Team events

When it concerns only part of the team, the regulations above would also apply (for instance when a player cannot play a singles match of the team-match because the racket was found illegal and the player had no other suitable one, or when the player was disqualified by the referee for the rest of the match).

When the whole team does not show up or is not allowed to play by the referee because of the color of their shirts or for any other reason, no individual penalty shall be applied to the players.

6. Appeals

When a player or his Association does not agree with a decision taken by the Ranking Default Commission an appeal may be made to the Executive Committee whose decision will be final.
